Go to Clark's, at Annapolis, for your Mowing Blades and Snaths, and Grain Cradles. They have a full stock and offer them at lowest prices.

Mrs. Lopez returned last week from the city with a new stock of Millinery and Fancy Goods. Call on her and see the Novelties and the low prices asked.

Monday at 2 o'clock P. M., the thermometer's mercury stood at 93°; six hours later, at 63°. Tuesday morning the atmosphere was chilling, and winter clothes were worn with comfort.

Those desiring good and finely retouched photographs should bear in mind that Mr. Knox, at Wilkinson's gallery, will only remain till July 1st. His work is just as good as can be had at St. Louis.

Beautiful light-shaded Kid Gloves, at 50 cts. a pair, worth $1.25, at Lopez's. Get a pair before they are sold. It's a decided bargain. Also, barazans in imported Black Kid Gloves, Little Thread and Lace Gloves.

The party at the American Hotel last Monday night, was well attended, and passed off very pleasantly. Dancing was continued until three o'clock in the morning, when everybody went home in excellent humor with all the world.

We can undersell every one in Calicoes, Domestic and Lawns. The season being late for the wholesaler, we bought low for cash, and will give the benefit of our enterprise to our customers. Call and see our goods and prices.

Lost.—In or near Ironton, on the 13th inst., a pocket book, containing some money and other articles. A reward of $20 will be paid the finder upon his delivery of the pocket-book and contents to the Mayor of Ironton or to the editor of this paper, with whom is left a full description.

Census-taking for the whole United States began Tuesday morning, some 28,000 enumerators being employed in the service. Those for this county are:

Dent Township.—Jno. S. Luthy.
Iron.—W. R. Read and Nathan Vail.
Arcadia.—J. Markham and J. T. Ake.
Liberty.—L. Markin.
Union.—J. B. Kinney and C. A. Butts.

The citizens of Ironton will not soon forget the Southern Express Co. refused to send all express matter to Arcadia at additional cost. We have an office at the Ironton depot now, and express matter sent from or received at Ironton will not be subject to delay, as frequently occurs now because the So. Ex. Co.'s agent won't go to the train.

Elsewhere is a card from the Town Marshal of Pilot Knob, in answer to a remark in last week's correspondence from that place. We regret that our correspondent made mention of a rumor which proves to have been unfounded, and we are certain, so will be when he learns the truth. Yet we think Mr. Walp should have contented himself with an explicit denial, and then have waited for the proper amends, which we have no doubt our correspondent would have willingly made.

IMPORTANT REDUCTION.—From and after this date, the Ironton Manufacturing Company will sell their

Choice XXXX Family Flour, at $2.90

CASH PER 100 LBS.,

and guarantee the same to be as good as that of any other manufacture.

Orders left at the mill or post-office, or sent by mail, will be promptly attended to, and the flour delivered in the Valley, free of extra charge.

Arcadia Convent Exhibition.

The regular annual commencement exercises of the pupils of the Convent of the Ursuline Sisters will take place on Thursday, June 17th, at 3 o'clock P. M., in the grand exhibition hall. These exercises, which in the past have been so interesting, will be particularly grand this year. The Sisters are determined to conduct their institution as first class in the strictest sense, and the annual commencement of the pupils will be an exhibit of their success. Parents, patrons and friends of the Arcadia Convent are cordially invited, without farther notice, to the exhibition to be held on June 17th.

In the parlors will be exhibited the works, useful and ornamental, of the pupils, such as wax flowers, spice flowers, artificial flowers, embroidery of various kinds; sewing, plain and ornamental, and crayon drawings; also some of the results of the culinary experience of the pupils. Besides the delightful musical and literary feast in the hall. This alone would be well worth a visit. Parlors will be open at 1 o'clock P. M., so that plenty of time will be given for viewing the works of the pupils before the entertainment begins.

See those elegant Lawn Dressing Sequences—which cannot be made at home for the money—at Mrs. Lopez's.

Pilot Knob Pickings.

Ed. Register.—Now and then we have an accession to our bazaar. The latest is a drugist, doctor and druggist, I believe combined in one—late of Mine la Motte.

For a long time we have had a rest on politics; or, at least, they have not occurred our time to any appreciable extent; but the war has reached this corner—and our peace is broken. I attended a seance the other evening, and listened to a harangue by—[I scarce know what to call him—Reformed Greenbacker, Flat, or something of that sort.]

"Who shall be our candidate for President?" he cries in the voice of a stentor.
"On every hand we hear advanced the claims of Tilden or of Grant. In a soldier tone we hear men swear that Hecky is our man for Governor, while the thin, piping voice of the two hundred and ten thousand applicants for minor places, elective and appointive, all the air as with the voice of a multitude. Party spirit runs high, and like all other mischievous evils should be repressed. Gaiety, sobriety and simulated wealth are the chief stock-in-trade of the flatterer backwoods orator, and plenty elbow-room with a big lade at the public crib, which is well filled with soup and pudding, is the goal of his ambition. His advocacy of the greatest good to the greatest number is mainly bosh; his enthusiasm is simulated, and his argument facetious. He has one serious difficulty to contend with that rarely succeeds in surmounting—this is to keep his oratory reduced to such a number that the offices will just go round. All is plain sailing in politics until there are more candidates than holes; then the denace is to pay. Why, sir! they tell us that popular government is the rule of the majority! But the majority is always ignorant and prejudiced; therefore popular government is but a puppet string on wires, which those behind the scenes can make dance at will. Who, I demand, do the thinking for the rank and file of all parties—but ours? Is it not the office-seeker, the wire-puller the manipulator of conventions?"

"Fellow citizens! I warn you to break with all old parties, join the new, and save the country to our posterity."
Your correspondent concluded that this was a good time to leave. He concluded that this orator had made an ass of himself; and he tore usually do, although in some things said there might be a grain of truth.

PILOT KNOB, May 31, 1880.

SUBURBS OF ARCADIA, May 29, 1880.

MISTER EDITOR.—After the extensive travel I am in the past few days, I feel it is time to rise a little. I have had my ups and downs, but which I ahead I can tell.

Knew ar in a groin kondishun, espeshully in the Southwest. I did not examine them close, as my mind was on other things.
Mister Editor, there is considerable gossip going on thru the community. It is the rumor that everybody who is not married is going to be long enuf and can find some woman to desire to marry. Billy Arlington got married last week, here in the suburbs. Now what next? Is the kweshun still in the minds of our single men? There seems to be considerable flin around, but it is like bees a swarm; hard to tell what the kween is to settle. We have much sympathy for the core boys.

Our friend, Jim Dixon, has got to Dunklin. Ma he has more success than than he has had heretofore.

The Fusher Kru ar al az industrius az ever, and Arkady had it this week. Last week Ironton had wun festival, wun esibishun, and tu cirkus.

The festival was a complete success, and yu cut git mor musik and exetara at the esibishun ovr the redy-banders than enywhar els for the same munny. Cirkus at the north end of town attracted the kumtl people largly. The cirkus in the kourthous was a fine esibishun or brances, sum were mudeled considerable; and the sperin in the ring was fine, but hard to tell who came out ahead. The Kurnel was thar, and Arkady strated to git bete—he was a Ward man, and I guess he aint now. At this ot tu satish Ironton for a month.

Arkady had the Civil Engeneers or the U. S. ov Ameriky tu diner this week, and thar wud fed. Sum of the sibings of the village war invited to cum and help dekorat the tabl; and az it was likel that thar wud be a big krowd down on the tavern, the mite be usefil az extra waters. Konsipikus in the kroul was the Kurnel, in charge of 3 tabls and 2 servants: Kapn Medli and wife, Miss Ostin, Miss Beards, Miss Koon, Misses Tator and Miss Kova, likewise wun kant kate, and ov kowse with such inspektors and ades it kud not be other than a nice tabl and wel surrounded.

When did Jonny git out of the insane asylum? Thar let him out to suze. Kant he be sent back?

I suppose our unklies in the lower end of the kounti hav gon lectheuneering, or visitin ther kussins. We dont here from them much.

How is Grant and Fletcher goin tu run in Irunkounty, aniw? Devotidli, MIKE DODSON.

The Young Men's Literary Society.

Ed. Register.—

The committee upon the Constitution and By-Laws for the Young Men's Literary Society met pursuant to a prior appointment, and have completed the arduous task encharged them. The documents are now fully prepared, and at the next meeting, to be held at Mr. Wilkinson's on Saturday evening, June 5th, will be submitted to the Society.

This meeting will be an important one. Then, the first election will take place, the members regularly initiated, and all the formalities necessary to a permanent organization, will be gone through with.

The interest in this effort of the young men of the vicinity is augmenting rapidly. This, too, is a critical time, and the next meeting will decide the institution's fate. If these initiatory efforts prove encouraging, permanent success may reasonably be hoped for. There never was a want more keenly felt by a community than the need of the numerous benefits derived from an organization for general literary culture; benefits so manifold and so manifest that it is useless to mention them.

The efforts extended by various personages interested directly in this movement are not actuated by any personal ambitions. The young people of this vicinity know that they need these advantages. The public want at last has demanded of us action, immediate and direct. With a constituency of at least 50, which will insure us some 30 or 40 regular members, we feel even assured of success. There are numerous indications of the hearty and present co-operation of many friends of more advanced life and experience. Should not our efforts and labors be stimulated by their aid, we would feel as if a commendable effort was not appreciated. And all of the numerous gentlemen who have so kindly assisted us thus far, and who have waited so patiently upon the slow process of organization, are requested to be with us at the next meeting (June 5th). The invitation is general; and we trust each one will induce his circle of acquaintances to accompany him.

Just as soon as the regular business of the meeting is transacted, there will be brought before the Society matters of the greatest importance, and which will prove more interesting than anything that may be suggested soon. Then with a full rank, and adhering to the time venerated motto, "Nulla Vestigia Retrosum," let us make this advanced movement an effective one.

Truly, LIBERTY.
